Is Kentucky Doubtful?

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, residing at Cynthiana, Kentucky, says: "Kentuckians are not really in sympathy with Democracy. They are ashamed of it. They have borne it patiently and long. They have seen emigration, wealth and enterprise go by and settle in younger and less favored States. They longed in vain to see the rich resources of their State developed, only to witness a fearful wreck and mismanagement of Statecraft and public weal by an old effete Democratic aristocracy living in the ages that have swept by and shown wonderful advancement in all other sections of our great country. Kentucky sent seventy-eight thousand soldiers to the war on the Union side. The Republican and Democratic soldiers came home and settled down to their respective callings, and have had but little to do in politics. The Union soldier is ignored by the Democratic party. He has seldom asked anything of that party. When he did he was refused. He will not fuse with the Republicans. It is claimed eighty thousand voters do not go to the polls. Why? They can not endorse Democracy, and they think it will do no good to vote with the Republicans. The Democrats know this is a dangerous element, and if once aroused, will sweep them from power, and end minority rule in Kentucky. Can this vote be brought out in November? I say yes."

In Sore Straits.

The sore straits of the Democracy force upon it a deal of equivocation, shuffling and double dealing. Like Artemus Ward it "ain't got no principles, nary principle, its in the show business," and the necessity of keeping up interest in the show requires many a change of scene and recast of characters. It has been juggling with free trade, playing Jeckyll and Hyde with the civil service and is not quite certain whether the bandana or the United States flag is the national emblem. But as ludicrous as any of its showman's antics is that which is going on in New York. A week before the New York State Democratic convention met, the Times of New York said: "It is driving idleness to suppose that Hill's nomination would not be disastrous in the State of New York. Another week will show whether the Democrats of this State are so blind and besotted as to throw away their chances like a drunken spendthrift and put in peril all that depends on the election of November 6." After the "drivelling idleness" was accomplished the Times, still clinging to Cleveland's coat tail, said: "We do not think the necessity of opposing Hill's election endangers the election of President Cleveland."

Now there is Senator Vest of Missouri yet to be pulled down. Vest threw up his hat when Mr. Cleveland's message came in last December and shouted, "Mr. Cleveland has by his message, for which I sincerely honor him, challenged the protected industries of the country to a fight of extermination. The fight is to the death." Mr. Vest will do his party a service that make it eternally his debtor, if he will explain that the papers reported him wrongly and that what he said was that Mr. Cleveland had challenged free trade to a fight of extermination.

McMinnville, Oregon, is experiencing a smallpox epidemic. Andrew Ennis, an old and wealthy citizen, is the latest victim, having died in the pest-house there on the 23d instant.

STEWART.

The Nevada Senator Introduces a Chinese Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The bill introduced by Senator Stewart to-day directs the President to inform the Chinese Government that the maintenance of the peace and good order of the people in the United States required the abrogation of the treaty stipulation between China and the United States, so far as they relate to the entry and residence in the United States of Chinese subjects.

The bill prohibits the entry of any Chinese into the United States, except the diplomatic and Consular officers, who shall not be detained at any port at which they may land, and Chinese officials, students, merchants and travelers for curiosity. Students, merchants and travelers shall only be allowed to enter at designated points and shall be required to bring with them the permission of their Government to come here. This permission and their personal identity shall be evidenced by a duplicate certificate made out by the representatives at the port from which they sail. One of these certificates shall be kept by the Chinaman and one by the master of the vessel on which he sailed. Both shall be surrendered to the Collector of Customs before the Chinaman is landed and a certificate of identification issued in their place.

Disputes as to the rights of Chinese to land are to be settled by the Collector of Customs, subject to review by the Secretary of the Treasury.

All Chinese now in the United States shall be requested within six months to secure a certificate of registration, and all Chinese found in this country after that period without a certificate of identification or registration shall be deported from the United States to the country whence they came.

All Chinese leaving the United States shall be requested to surrender any certificates they may hold before sailing.

The Secretary of the Treasury is given authority to appoint officers to execute the provisions of this Act and also prohibit Chinese dwelling within a certain (not named) distance of the borders of the United States.

Provision is made for the punishment of persons violating any clauses of the Act.

BLOODTHIRSTY GREASERS.

Parade the Streets of an American Town—A War Cloud.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Acting Secretary Thompson this morning received the following telegram from the Collector of Customs at Brownsville, Texas, dated 23d:

"An armed mob has taken possession of Rio Grande City on account of the killing of a Mexican by a Customs officer in a personal encounter. The officer went to Fort Ringgold for protection. The civil authorities of Starr county are powerless. Please obtain orders to be telegraphed for military aid to Ringgold to protect the Custom house and citizens until the danger is over. The necessity is urgent. Fighting is hourly expected. Orders have to be sent by carrier from Ft. Brown, the line to Ringgold having been cut by the mob."

Secretary Thompson replied to the Collector, asking if the situation at Rio Grande City today was still of a character to require the presence of United States troops, but received no answer up to the hour of the closing of the Department. A letter was also prepared requesting the Secretary of War to order troops to Rio Grande City for the protection of Government property. In the absence, however, of information from the Collector as to whether the necessity for troops still existed, Secretary Thompson did not sign the letter, and he decided to take no further action till to-morrow.

RIO GRANDE CITY, Sept. 24.—A telegram to Governor Ross from Starr county says: "Two Mexicans were wounded, one mortally, by Custom Officer Sebree, in a street fight in Rio Grande City yesterday. Large parties of armed Mexicans are parading the streets demanding that Sebree be placed in jail—doubtless to murder him. The Sheriff is powerless and his life is in danger. Lieutenant Cledennan cannot send soldiers without orders from Washington. Wire the President for such orders. Send Rangers. Aid must be sent at once or it will be too late."

A Fatal Prize Fight.

GRAND FORKS, Dakota, Sept. 24.—A prize fight took place here yesterday morning between Geo. Fullam and an unknown. Fullam received a blow over the heart that knocked him out and resulted in his death. The unknown was arrested and locked up, but afterwards made his escape.

MASKED ROBBERIES.

They Make an Unsuccessful Attack on a Southern Pacific Train.

SCHULENBURG, Tex., Sept. 25.—A passenger train on the Southern Pacific was stopped near Harwood Saturday night by masked men, who compelled the engineer to uncouple from the passenger coaches and pull out of the way. Conductor E. E. Shackelford was compelled to assist in uncoupling the engine. In the express car were United States Marshal John T. Rankin, with Deputy William Van-wipper and Detective J. J. Kelly of the Southern Pacific service. Other officers were on the train, the company having been warned of the attack, all the east-bound trains having been guarded by Marshal Rankin since last Wednesday.

The robbers were soon on the mail car. "Rifle the mail bags," commanded the leader of the gang. Two men told the engineer to open the door, and as soon as his head peered into the open space, Bud West, mistaking him for one of the robbers, fired one barrel of his shotgun, and the engineer fell back with an ugly wound in his cheek. The bandits then tried to make the fireman serve a like purpose, and when West sighted the fireman he discharged the other barrel of his gun, but fortunately missed his aim. The bandits then returned the fire, and no less than fifty shots were exchanged, when the baffled robbers fled, carrying two of their wounded with them. There were ten in the gang. They will be pursued with bloodhounds.

A Terrible Crime.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Walter Johnson, thirty-four years of age and who has been employed at the Rock Island car-shop, rushed into the kitchen at his home, 5208 La Salle street, this morning, snatched a big butcher knife and made a plunge at his mother, aged sixty-nine, and the knife was buried in the old lady's throat. He stabbed her again in the throat and she dropped to the floor. Johnson then ran to the woodshed and hanged himself. The officers cut him down and restored him to consciousness. The old lady will die. Johnson has been mentally un-sound a long time and was insane when he committed the dreadful crime.

The Latest from Stanley.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Farman, Henry M. Stanley's Syrian interpreter, has arrived in London. He left Arawhimi on account of illness, three days before Major Bartlett started on his journey. He confirms the reports as to Bartlett's hot temper and the brutality shown by him to the natives, and says he expected that Bartlett would be killed. Stanley, he says, insisted upon the natives being kindly treated.

The Mongolian Evil.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Sam Wab, a Chinaman, and his wife Augusta, a white woman, are locked up at Army police station charged with bringing white women from Milwaukee and furnishing them for wives to Chinamen for $25 each. Through their matrimonial agency it is charged that four or five local Chinamen have been furnished with wives.

Opposition to Chinese.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 25.—The Nord, referring to the suspicion that the Chinese are prospecting in Siberia and seeking there an opening for emigration instead of in America and Australia, says that Russia would not allow Chinese immigration to Siberia.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Marshal Bazaine died in Madrid on the 24d instant.

S. S. Cox ("Sunset") is spoken of as a Democratic candidate for Mayor of New York city.

General Solomon, ex-President of Hayti, is dying in Paris. His last sacrament has been delivered.

A man answering to the description of Pete Olsen has been arrested at Freeport, Washington Territory.

Judge Isaac Newton Senter, ex-Judge of Santa Clara county, Cal., died in San Jose on the 23d instant, aged 83 years.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What will it profit an American workman to gain the markets of the whole world and lose his own wages? The Republican clubs in New York are preparing for a great demonstration in all the counties of the State on the 29th.

J. B. Beilock of Virginia, a former member of the Democratic State Central Committee, is out for Harrison and Morton.

The average Republican plurality in Maine in the elections of the past eighteen is 7,800. This year it is over eighteen thousand.

Democratic Congressman Vance of Connecticut has no hopes for his party in that State and has told Mr. Cleveland so to his face.

Mr. Sowden, the Randall Democrat who voted against the Mills bill and was punished by the Administration, declines to go out now on the stump and attempt to stop the stampede of Protectionists away from the Democratic party.

Henry George created a sensation among Philadelphia Democrats on Saturday night, September 15th, by proclaiming himself an absolute Free Trader, and saying that the re-election of President Cleveland meant the overthrow of Protection.

SENATOR STEWART TALKS.

His Voice, as Usual, Was the True Republican Ring.

The Virginia Enterprise has been permitted to publish the following letter from U. S. Senator Stewart to H. Harris (Royal Danish Vice Consul) of Gold Hill. In his letter the Senator refers to an article by Mr. Harris, published in a Danish paper in San Francisco:

UNITED STATES SENATE.
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 10, 1888.
 H. Harris, Esq., Gold Hill, Nev.—My Dear Sir: Your esteemed favor of the 1st instant is before me. It reminds me of the hard-cider campaign of 1840. Strange to say, the same great questions are involved in the issue between Harrison and Cleveland that were involved in the issue between Harrison and Van Buren. The question then was, and is now, whether the United States should maintain financial and industrial independence, as well as political independence, or whether the people of this country shall be dependent upon England for the comforts and necessities of life.

The compromise tariff of 1833, with its sliding scale toward free trade, opened our markets to the glut of foreign commodities and exhausted our meager circulating medium to pay for foreign goods which we had imported. But the financial disaster called the crisis of 1837. The restoration of our manufactures and the revival of business was involved in the election of 1840, and notwithstanding two vetoes by John Tyler (of unsavory memory) a tariff bill was forced through in 1842, which restored prosperity; but in 1846 another free-trade bill was passed, the ruinous effects of which were met by the discovery of gold in California, which furnished a circulating medium and gold to export in payment of foreign goods without absolutely exhausting our circulating medium. But the further reduction of the tariff under Buchanan's administration in 1857 was the straw that broke the camel's back, from which the country had not recovered in 1860, when the war broke out. The North without manufactures. The war shook the continent and lasted until the South was exhausted. When the South seceded the North passed the tariff of 1861, which, with some modifications, still remains, and under it the wealth of the nation has increased from $10,000,000 in 1860 to $65,000,000,000 in 1888.

It is against this prosperity that the Bourbons of the South and the importers of New York have combined to make war. Let us beat 'em. I also read your articles with much interest and pleasure, and can endorse every word you say. I wish there were more like you. Yours, very truly, Wm. M. Stewart.

Eat With Comfort and Be Happy.

It is by no means uncertain, but, on the contrary, a well ascertained fact, that upon the well being of man's stomach depends that modicum of happiness which is vouchsafed to him in this world. Dyspepsia, the foe of all other pleasures, the stomach's tranquility, and most to be dreaded, is a complaint to the preliminary relief and eventual cure of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted. It enables those who use it with a reasonable degree of persistence to eat with relish, because it imparts a healthy appetite; to digest with ease, because it strengthens the stomach; and to assimilate the food which is eaten and digested, thus benefitting health, promoting flesh and sustaining the exercise of the physical and mental faculties. It, moreover, facilitates the secretion of healthy bile, actually relieves discomfort of the habit of food, and tends, when taken upon retiring, to produce healthy slumber. Malaria is conquered by it.

A Good Advertisement.

The Lyon county Times says: Those who have attended the State Fair this year speak in very high terms of the way it has been managed, and think the exhibits much more numerous and nicer than at any previous Fair. There were some good running and trotting races, and there is said to be less complaint about them being on the square than ever before. It cannot yet be told whether the Fair has proved a success financially or not, but if it has come anywhere near so doing it has paid for its advertisement the State and her products to the value of many thousands of dollars.

Virginia Enterprise. A man with a forked stick tells the people of Washoe valley that he can show them a place in the big canyon that runs up past Slide Mountain where a tunnel will strike a whole river of water. If the "dowser" does not lie a tunnel only 150 feet in length will be required.

A BIG ORCHARD.

Twelve Hundred Acres at Rio Bonito Purchased by a Fruit Grower.

The Biggs (Cal.) Argus publishes the following: It is reported that a strong company, with A. T. Hatch, the most prominent fruit grower of the State at the head, have about completed negotiations with Preble & Young for 1,200 acres of Rio Bonito lands, adjoining Biggs on the east, which they propose planting out in fruit trees this fall. The lands selected cannot be excelled anywhere in the State for fruit growing, and it being so beautifully situated on the Feather river, the orchard will not only be the largest in the State but will in time be the most productive. The starting of this immense orchard will be only one of the many similar enterprises that will be inaugurated during the coming fall, and we may look for a bigger boom in tree planting in Butte county than has ever been conceived of. With such men as A. T. Hatch and other fruit-growing experts taking hold of this industry in this section, it speaks well for our soil and climate for the production of fruit.

Will Observe Reno Day.

To-morrow will be Reno Day at the Ormsby County Fair and in order to give the newspaper fraternity an opportunity to attend, the Journal and GAZETTE have agreed "to shut up shop." Consequently the GAZETTE will not be issued to-morrow evening.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewarp, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

When symptoms of malaria appear, in any form, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will prevent a development of the germ of disease, and eradicate them from the system. A cure is guaranteed in every instance.

Irritation of the Throat and all Lung Troubles are quickly relieved and permanently cured by Ayer's Catarrh Cough Balsam. (It contains no opium.) Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. F. Plummer. All genuine medicine preparations bear the fac-simile signature of Dr. J. C. Ayer.

When the system is debilitated by disease, it should be strengthened and renewed with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine invariably proves itself a remedy for all that can be said in its favor. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicines. Price 50 cents per bottle.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

A Military Corps to be Formed and an Army Officer to Act as Military Instructor.

Senate Bill No. 188 (with House Amendments), relative to amending Section 1225 of the Revised Statutes, "concerning details of army officers to educational institutions, and so forth," passed the Senate on the 18th instant, and is now in the hands of the President for his signature or rejection.

President LeRoy D. Brown of the State University and Senator Stewart have been indefatigable in their efforts to secure the passage of the bill and the amendments thereto, and if it should meet with the President's approval the Government will be requested to detail an officer of the army to act as Military Instructor at the University.

Section 1225, as amended, reads as follows: "The President may, upon the application of any institute, seminary, or academy, or college, or university within the United States having capacity to educate at the same time not less than one hundred and fifty male students, detail an officer of the army or navy to act as Superintendent or Professor thereof; but the number of officers so detailed shall not exceed fifty from the army and ten from the navy, being a maximum of sixty, at any time, and they shall be appointed through the United States, first, to those State institutions applying for such detail that is required to provide instruction in military tactics under the provisions of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1862, donating lands for the establishment of colleges where the leading object shall be the practical instruction of the industrial classes in agriculture and the mechanic arts, including military tactics; and after that, said details to be distributed, as nearly as may be practicable, according to population. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue, at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him out of ordnance and ordnance stores belonging to the Government, and which can be spared for that purpose, such number of the same as may appear to be required for military instruction and practice by the students of any college or university under the provision of this section," etc.

HO, FOR CARSON!

Reno Day at the Ormsby County Fair—A Special Excursion Train.

Remotely will descend upon the Capital City to-morrow in a body, and with their accustomed enterprise and good fellowship will carry everything before them. The Carsonites came in a body to the State Fair last Wednesday, and to-morrow Reno will reciprocate in a manner which will both please and surprise the Capitalians. To-morrow will be Reno Day at the Ormsby County Fair, and the indications now are that several hundred people will proceed there, headed by a brass band, in a special train, leaving here at 10 o'clock a. m. All of Reno's leading business men will close their respective places of business, thus giving themselves and clerks an opportunity to enjoy an outing. Doubtless elaborate preparations will be made by the Carsonites to receive our people, and a day of uninterrupted enjoyment will be assured all who make the journey. Reno very rarely ever fails in anything she attempts, and Reno Day at the Ormsby County Fair is destined to go down in its history as its red letter day.

The following business houses of Reno have signed an agreement to close to-morrow, and doubtless others will follow the good example set:

Tassell Bros I N Bakeloss
W Levy First Nat. Bank
Bank of Nevada F Levy & Bro
Manning & Jaques J Sunderland
S. Enrich C A Thurston
M Nathan S Jacobs
C J Brookson C W Condon
E Dunning Coffin & Larcombe
Folsom & Wells H F Rhno
Havenor & King W O H Martin
Abraham Bros J N Wallace
Berry & Novacovich Nasby
E O Leadbetter Lange & Schmidt
T Barnett J J Quinn

The train will leave the depot at 9 o'clock a. m. sharp, and the fare for the round-trip will be $1.

The Carson Fair.

The Ormsby County Fair which commenced yesterday in Carson promises to be the best ever held there. Much of the pavilion exhibit at the State Fair has been taken to Carson and added to the local exhibit, and so with much of the fine stock and races. The race track is in excellent condition and the grounds in fine order. Some very interesting and lively races will transpire during the week. The reduced rates for the occasion, over the railroad, give everybody a good chance for a cheap ride and a first-rate time at the Fair, to say nothing of a healthful promenade through the lovely shades of Carson or a trip to the springs, State Prison and other points of interest near the Capital city.

Ormsby County Winners.

Ormsby Republicans have selected Evan Williams for State Senator, Geo. C. Thaxter, Geo. A. Tyrrell and Tremor Coffin, Assemblymen; John S. Ulrich, Sheriff; Wm. Hy. Doane, Clerk; J. D. Torreyson, District Attorney; A. M. McCabe, Recorder; Jacob Tobriner, Treasurer; Chas. W. Friend, Public Administrator; J. H. Martin and Chas. E. Bray, Commissioners.

"The Madonna at the Tab."

Of whom Miss Phelps writes, was a genuine specimen of health and strength. She doubtless heeded the warnings of her predecessors, and understood and appreciated the matchless qualities of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which relieves and cures so many ailments peculiar to the sex. As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages, in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, "Favorite Prescription" is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic. For constipation, cold or bilious headache, use Dr. Pierce's Pills, or Antacidulous Gravel. Purely vegetable. One a day.

THE CRAWLER.

The Unparalleled feat accomplished by the Railroad Official.

The Central Pacific Railroad officials have within the past three days accomplished the most wonderful engineering feat which they have had to contend with since the first train of their system passed over the road bed. Notwithstanding the scarcity of locomotives, the insecure, nay dangerous, condition of their road in the Sierra Nevada, the miles of burned snowbeds, and the well-known incompetency of the head official of the Sacramento division, the company has for the past three days sent their west-bound trains into Reno on schedule time, and what is more remarkable have dispatched trains east-bound from the metropolis at the advertised time. Wonders will never cease, and if the engineering corps continue to improve, people can leave Reno on the Crawler, happy in the knowledge that at a certain hour they will be landed at their destination. It is reported that changes in the department heads will soon be made. The GAZETTE, in behalf of all sageland, enters its protest against any changes being made. Let well enough alone, say we all. The Crawler is doing good service, and instead of relegating to obscurity the official who is to blame for the accomplishment of this great feat in railroad engineering, he should be crowned with laurel, and be placed on dress parade, where all can see what is now considered by our people to be the eighth wonder of the world.

NEW ENGINES.

Better Time Promised Between Sacramento and San Francisco.

J. A. Fillmore, General Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company, in an interview with a reporter in San Francisco, spoke of the delay of the Cook Locomotive Works in filling the company's orders for engines, which were to have been sent out here in July last. Two of the locomotives have just arrived. They are described as a good deal heavier and more powerful than those in use at present. They are intended for the passenger train service between Oakland and Sacramento, and the operative department calculates to be able to obtain a speed of at least forty-five miles an hour by their use. They weigh 98,000 pounds, have eight wheels, the drivers being a new design of 48 inches diameter. The main difference between them and the old engines is that they have about ten tons more weight over the drivers and can carry a heavy pressure of steam. The average weight of locomotives in use on the Central Pacific system is from 75,000 to 80,000 pounds, and the average steam pressure is from 125 to 140 pounds. The extra steam power of the new engines gives them a greater leverage and enables them, when leaving a station with a heavy train, to acquire almost immediately a rate of speed which other engines only attain after a run of several miles. This is a great advantage and saves both time and fuel. "With these engines," says Mr. Fillmore, "we can make better time, for they can easily run forty-five miles an hour on the level track between Sacramento and Oakland. That line is laid with six-foot gauge steel rails, which will admit of fast time being made with safety."

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.

The Central Pacific Railroad Asks for a Heavy Reduction.

To-day the Board of County Commissioners met as a Board of Equalization. A number of applicants appeared before them for reduction on assessment, among them being E. Black Ryan, attorney for the Central Pacific Railroad, and a representative of the Nevada & California Railroad. The former asked for a reduction of over $400,000, while the latter said his company would be satisfied if the assessment were reduced about $30,000. Mr. Ryan's argument was based on the utility of the road or the net earnings of the road. He asked a reduction from the assessment of $1,100,155 to $783,420, which is the original return as made by the railroad company. If the net earnings of the road of Nevada for the past year, $281,748, were taken as the basis of assessment the amount per mile, including side track, throughout the State would be $8,000 and the rate asked for by the company would be $12,000 per mile.

After Mr. Ryan's remarks the Board went into secret session to deliberate. This done they denied the petition of the Central Pacific Railroad, and made the following reduction in the assessment on the property of the Nevada & California Railroad: On roadbed, etc., from $2,500 to $2,000 per mile; on personal property, etc., from $12,000 to $10,000.

The Board increased the assessment on J. P. Foulkes' property from $1,500 to $3,000, and the Truckee Lumber Company's assessment from $1,500 to $2,000.

Peace War Claims.

A dispatch from Washington, dated the 23d inst., says: Representative Hermann of Oregon made a favorable report yesterday from the House Committee on Indian Depredation Claims on the Senate bill providing for the payment of the claims of citizens of Nevada and California arising out of the Bute war of 1860. The bill passed the Senate last May, and is sustained by an exhaustive Senate report and a well-considered report by Mr. Hermann.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum, and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Why cough and suffer with a cold when Fryer's Absorbent Cough Balsam will give immediate relief. (It contains no opium.) Price 75 cents. Sold by Wm. F. Plummer. All genuine Absorbent preparations bear the fac-simile signature of Dr. J. C. Fryer.

Hall's VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

Hall's Hair Renewer restores gray hair to its original color; cures dandruff and itching; prevents the hair from falling out; and renders it soft and brilliant. The author of the "Ocean Foam" Cape May, N.J., writes: "We speak knowingly, when we say that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best of its kind. The result is an elegant and cleanly one, without which we think no toilet complete." Mrs. D. Jones, Middlebury, N.Y., writes: "I have used

FLYING LIKE THE WIND.

The Story of an Awful Leap—Georgia's Greatest Equestrian Feat.

It was in the sixties. Mitchell's bride across Malberry creek was the fastest in Harris county. A swell in the creek had misplaced an arch and a dozen men had assembled to repair the damage. The flooring for twelve feet had been removed. It was twenty-five feet to the water beneath.

Suddenly the hammers ceased and the men listened intently to the approaching clatter of a horse's hoofs.

"It's Jess, by golly," said one.

"He's splittin' the wind, too," said another.

"That little filly knows how to pick up her feet, and she don't study about it, neither," said number three.

"Dang my buttons!"

This was said just as the rider appeared in sight, presenting a picture of robust manhood, gulking with unerring hand the fleetest little mare in Western Georgia.

He was clad in a fine broadcloth suit, his feet in a pair of the best calf-skin boots, and they armed and ornamented with neat, small spurs.

On he came. The men were lost in admiration and stood with mouth and eyes open, transfixed to the spot.

He neared the bridge.

As if by magic the crowd were awakened to the horrible death that awaited the man should he attempt to pass over the bridge.

"Stop! stop!" shouted the men.

"The floor's up!"

"You can't cross!"

The horse's hoofs struck the bridge.

"Head him off!"

"He'll be killed!"

"Stop! stop!"

And they all rushed to the middle of the bridge.

"Clear the track!" whooped the impetuous rider, and the way was cleared.

He reached the brink. The gallant mare paused—trembled. The men stood breathless. The rider planted himself firmly in the saddle, gathered the reins tighter and sank the spurs deep into the sides of the mare.

She reared, leaped wildly into the air and landed safely beyond the awful gap.

With unaltered pace, and without a sound save the clattering of the horse's hoofs, both steed and rider disappeared over the hill, having surpassed anything of the kind in the history of Georgia.—Hamilton (Ga.) Journal.

A TURKISH DINNER.

Why One Should Accept a Pasha's Invitation To Dine.

By all means accept an invitation to dine with a Turkish Pasha.

I had the pleasure of taking a meal with the Governor of Drama, who is richly rich for a Turk, seeing that he rules over the plain where the chief tobacco farms are, and his opportunities for amassing wealth are many and varied.

Science and expedition are the chief characteristics of a Turkish meal.

The table preparations are few, but the dishes are many; olives, caviare, cheese, etc., are dotted about, and perhaps as many as ten dishes are handed round on covered brass dishes, consisting of rice or barley, meat or boiled fish, cakes seasoned with vegetables, roast lamb, beans, a species of rissole wrapped up in rice leaves, the inevitable pilaf and fruits, and, as wide is forbidden, an intoxicating substitute is found in liquor and brandy.

Each person has his glass of sherbet by him, and his piece of flavoured bread, for the Turks love half-baked dough.

It will comfort the "Tewkesbury" to recover one wash his hands before the meal, for for as unknown and etc." is expected to dip his fingers into the savory morsel as it is handed to him.

During the whole of the feeding process scarcely four or five words will be uttered, and at the most your repeat will last twenty minutes, but, afterwards, with the coffee and the bubble-bubble, conversation will flow freely.

The Turk eating is a curious gastronomic exercise, which will not admit of any conversation being entered into during its progress.

SOMNAMBULISM EXTRAORDINARY.

What a Young Farmer Did in His Sleep.

A young Australian near Bochara, after an unusually hard day's work sheep shearing, went to sleep on the sitting-room couch after supper.

Soon he arose, walked out into the darkness, went through four gates, which he carefully closed, to the woods, and then hung up his coat and took down his sheep shears and sharpened them. Then he caught a sheep and had just finished shearing it when some of the household came with a lantern.

Then it turned out that he had been asleep all the time, and the light of the lantern awakened him.

The sheep was sheared as well as though it had been done in broad daylight.

Philosophy of Mother-in-Lawism.

It is rather curious that a fair young girl, full of healthful affection and sympathy and all that sort of thing, should grow up to be a tyrannizing old mother-in-law.

It does not seem natural, but if it weren't so would everybody have such a decided opinion about them? Is it that a woman when she gets married finds herself so dominated over by a man that her only revenge is to take it out of the man who marries her daughter? Are daughters after all only a kind of bait to catch a man that a mother-in-law can get even upon?—San Francisco Chronicle.

Grotesque Goose Story.

"When I was in Alabama, between Porter's Gap and Millerville," said a gentleman living in Atlanta, "I came to a country place where a man was driving two or three geese from a branch toward a cotton patch.

"For Heaven's sake," said I, "what is it you have on the necks of those geese?"

"Those are gourds, full of water. I drive these geese into that cotton patch and keep them there all day wading out the cotton. There is no water in the cotton patch, and I have to give them water in this way to keep them there."

"But how do they get the water out of those gourds under their necks?"

"They drink out of each other's gourds. Each gourd has an opening in the side so that another goose can put his bill into the gourd and drink. If you will stay here long enough you will see it yourself."

"I waited there half a day to see that performance, and finally I saw it. The geese did just as the man said they would. When a goose got thirsty he walked up to his neighbor and coolly drank out of his gourd on his neck."—Atlanta Journal.
